PASTOR

An ordained United Methodist pastor, Donald Charles Lacy has served churches across the state of Indiana. They have been in various sizes of membership and in diverse situations. They include rural, small town, inner-city, county-seat, and metropolitan congregations. He received his theological training from Christian Theological Seminary in Indianapolis which granted him both the Master of Divinity and Doctor of Ministry degrees. His doctoral project was "Preaching as a Lay/Clergy Event" and was done while he was pastor of the First United Methodist Church of Seymour, Indiana. As a community-oriented pastor, he has served in numerous leadership roles. He has high regard for the professional pastoral function but understands the great significance of lay ministry.

EDUCATOR

Prior to entering the professional ministry, Donald Charles Lacy received the Bachelor of Science and Master of Arts degrees from Ball State University. He taught full-time at the secondary level in Social Studies and English. He holds a lifetime license in the state of Indiana in these areas. American history and Church history have been an ongoing special love from his earliest days. As a Phi Delta Kappan for more than 25 years, he has kept abreast of much of the changes occurring in public education. Dr. Lacy is both an intellectual and pragmatist who views life in terms of being a pupil in God's classroom. He continues to believe teaching in both religious and secular fields is a special calling.

ECUMENIST

Years of participation in Christian Unity and Jewish-Christian Dialogue at local, state, and national levels have made Donald Charles Lacy well-versed in the issues they present. His travels have taken him to several states and he has met many national and international figures. He served 5 years as the head of the Department of Ecumenical Concerns of the Indiana Council of Churches. Roman Catholics, Orthodox, Protestants, and Jews receive him as a brother in the cause of world peace. This ministry has brought numerous opportunities to appear on radio and television. He appeared twice on "Sunday Morning in Chicago" over WGN Radio. A rare person, indeed, he has the gift of appreciating the many facets of the Judeo-Christian tradition.

AUTHOR

Beginning with a feature in The Church and the Fine Arts in 1960, Donald Charles Lacy has continued to write and publish. He is the author of 5 books, 8 booklets, and more than 400 articles; the articles have appeared in a wide variety of publications, including "Science of Mind," "International Christian Digest," "Indianapolis Star," "Our Sunday Visitor" etc. Much of what he has written has been done in the area of Christian Unity and Jewish-Christian Dialogue. However, he has also written columns and features on political, social, and economic issues. His book, Called To Be, has been widely-acclaimed as one of the best books of sermons on the Sermon on the Mount. "Methodist Mass" and "Decalogue for Ecumenical Discipleship" have been utilized across the country. A feature on the Mother of Jesus has been read by millions in several countries. Contemporary Authors (Volume 105) has a spacious article on him and his work. Dr. Lacy is a member of the International Platform Association.
