WHO

- Middle class
- Working class
- Newly unemployed
- Underemployed
- Non-traditional students
- Individuals who have need of services, perhaps for the first time, and don't know where to connect with them.

WHY

- The face of need is changing to include middle and working class instead of only generational poverty.
- Working class people have many demands on their time and may not have the flexibility time to seek out services that they or family members might need.
- Personal stressors can affect productivity and contribute to absenteeism in the workplace.

WHAT

Present information to the people who have first contact with those in need-

- Supervisors
- Higher Education
- Human Resource Managers

HOW

- Requested agencies come together
- In one venue
- Present to supervisors, HR managers, and educators the services they provide

WHERE and WHEN

- Central locations, countywide
- Larger business sites
- Biannual or quarterly meetings

Community Agencies

- Bowen Center
- Beaman Home
- Township Trustee
